Father's Reflection : The Babbling Bruch

Just a quick note: Monday, January 1st, while being a Holy Day (The Solemnity of Mary) is not celebrated as a Holy Day this year because it falls on a Monday. Some years ago the Bishops of this country observed that when a Holy Day falls on a Monday, with the exception of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the obligation to assist at Mass is not observed. The Mass schedule will stay as scheduled, but your attendance is voluntary. Would be a nice way to start the new year, Right?

The Feast of the Holy Family falls this Sunday. How is your family doing as family? How about taking one night a week for family night. Let the youngsters help plan the evening. Put a puzzle together? Play a board game? Game of cards? Put away those electronic things and see if the next generation know how to carry on a conversation.

A most blessed and joy-filled new year to all. Gratitude and affection to all from Frs. Paul and Jim.

PREKINDERGARTEN REGISTRATION
