The Babbling Bruch

Let it happen. Talk about being bombarded with activities! Black history month, week of Marriage enrichment, Ash Wednesday, CHR, Sacred Heart Gala, Women's and Men's conferences, any number of Bible studies, Lenten devotions (stations of the Cross) soup suppers etc. It strikes me as a bit overdone - when we have the greatest celebration and greatest prayer and invite to praise and thank God for his Son who came and became one of us and by His doing what He did, suffering, dying and rising in the Mass - I sincerely hope many will make the connection and take part in whatever will deepen and enhance that experience.

The last temptation may be the greatest treason, to do the right thing but for the wrong reason. Fall in love all over again this Lenten season.

WE ARE MOVING FORWARD You will either have read, or will soon read the campaign update in the Lenten newsletter. Know that the resolution requesting to build the Parish Hall HAS BEEN SENT IN! Now, we wait for the Diocese to respond. Say a prayer, keep positive thoughts and we will keep you posted. Keep up your payments and keep your faith! It is going to happen!
God Bless you for believing in our future!
Pledge forms and payment envelopes are in the back of church!

A Men's Bible Study has been establish on Monday nights, alternating between the Sacred Heart KC hall or parish office basement in Boone and the Hansen Hall at St Malachy's Church in Madrid.
