The Babbling Bruch

Remember falling in love? Remember the good feelings you had when you met someone you liked right away and the other seemed to like you back? And you spent time with each other, and asked questions about their likes and dislikes, their life and family, their interests etc? Did you take time this Lent to meet the Lord head on? Have you grown in your knowledge of Him, His likes and dislikes, his life and how he loved? And do our loves come close to match His? The marriage vows say it all : I will love and honor you until death do us part. Whether that be the love of a spouse or the love of friendship, the qualities of love involve faithfulness, forgiveness, openness, caring and sharing. Jesus is the light of the world. We have all been invited these last days to spend some quality time calling to mind what real love is all about. Did you do that well? Is Christ and his way of loving involved in your love life?

The present challenge is to have a personal relationship with him. Do you spend time with him? Do you know his likes and dislikes? Is He important enough in our lives to bring about change so we can be better lovers? He is one companion we must travel with on our journey home if we want to get there, and really enjoy the trip.

Happy new life! Have a blessed Easter.

Divine Mercy Sunday
April 8, 2018

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us - all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. Join in celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8th, with an hour of Adoration and Reconciliation from 2:00 to 3:00pm at Sacred Heart Church in Boone.
