I have used this device to help me remember the basics of living out our Catholic life. I often wonder if parents are aware of what they are saying yes to when they assure the people at every Baptism to raise their children in the practice of the faith. Pope Benedict once stated that many Catholics are cafeteria Catholics - I'll have some to that, but not that etc..
Just a little example between you and God: how do you rate yourself?
WOW! Many thanks to Deb and Denise and all who made the arrangements and served and came to wish Fr. Paul and myself farewell last weekend. It helps us very much as we too need to transition. God Bless all of you.

Thank you for your faith in our future!

From the very beginnings of the Church, it was customary for the faithful to donate the bread and wine to be used in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. In time, offerings of money were substituted for the actual bread and wine. Money given in excess of what was necessary for the procuring of the bread and wine was used to assist the poor and, eventually, to support the clergy. Thus, it became customary for the priest to accept from the faithful a donation (formerly called a "stipend") in return for remembering a specific intention in the celebration of a Mass. Through this voluntary offering, the donor seeks spiritual benefits that God may bestow upon the persons or concerns that are specially held in prayer at the Mass. What is more, the Code of Canon Law (canon 946) notes that the donor himself benefits: "Christ's faithful who make an offering so that Mass can be celebrated for their intention contribute to the good of the Church, and by that offering they share in the Church's concern for the support of its ministers and its activities."

When a priest accepts a Mass stipend, he sets up a contract with that person to pray for their intention at a specific Mass. The priest contracts to pray for that intention specifically, but that does not nor can it preclude him from also praying for other intentions as well, but he can only receive one Mass stipend for each Mass offered. Stipends for additional intentions must be given to charity.

When parishioners request Mass intentions for a specific date we will make every effort to schedule those Masses on or as close to the date as possible. By leaving your name and contact information with your request, it allows us to contact you to make other arrangements in the event that this is not possible.

Beginning July 1, 2018 the standard offering for one Mass intention will increase from $5 to $10. All requests made prior to July 1st will be honored at the $5.00 rate.
